Caution! WE desire to warn the generality, and consumers of snuff generally, that since the war, certain tobacco manufacturers, being unable to find a market for their snuff, have themselves obliged to counterfeit the general appearance of our packages, and imitate our Trade Marks, so that a close inspection is necessary to detect the spurious article from the genuine, and others going so far as to assert that "Lorillard's Snuff is no longer made."

In making this publication we desire to warn the public against the impositions practiced upon them; as they are the losers hereby. It will be found upon comparison that Lorillard's Snuff is "far ahead" of all others, being made of the best stock after an original and secret process known only to ourselves, besides possessing great degree strength and pungency, and is warranted not to contain any dangerous or deleterious substances, which cannot be said of the many worthless articles put on sale by others. The best is the cheapest in the end. A circular will always be mailed on application. In ordering please specify if Sax Snuff, High Toast), or Fresh Snuff (Extra Scotch) is desired.

MODE OF DRAWING.

All of the above is put in the drawing at the regular cash selling prices and will be disposed of by a regular mode of drawing, and in order to accomplish this, the Company will sell 73,347 tickets at $2 each.

The drawing will take place in TUCKER HALL, in the city of Raleigh, immediately after sale of tickets,—of which due notice will be given, at least one week before the day of drawing.

The Company is working under the provisions of a special Charter granted by the General Assembly of North Carolina, which compels the Company to comply faithfully with all contracts.

Copies can be had on application to the Co.

All the above mentioned property will certainly be disposed of as above stated, and the drawing it will be invested with the title in fee simple.

☞ No member of the Company is allowed to purchase any tickets.

All moneys sent by mail, at the owner risk; that sent by Express, Registered Letters, Checks or Drafts at the risk of the Co.

No property will be listed unless the title is indisputable.

The Treasurer has been required to give a bond of five thousand dollars for the faithful performance of his duties. He is required to deposite, daily, in the bank, all monies received, where it will remain until the tickets are sold and all the property will be positively drawn and delivered to the parties drawing, or the money returned. Send two dollars by Express, Post Office Order, Registered Letter or Draft, at our risk, or by mail at your own, and take a chance at the 3,000 valuable prizes offered.

Tickets will be sent anywhere in the United States at the Company's risk upon receipt of $2 and postage stamp.

The plan of drawing shall be as follows. there shall be two wheels, one a prize wheel and one a number wheel, arranged in some public place in the city, where the ticket holder may witness the drawing if he desires.—In the number wheel there shall be 73,347 tickets corresponding in number to those which have been sold. In the prize wheel there shall be deposited by the Board of Supervisors, appointed by the Directors 3,000 tickets, designating the prizes to be drawn, after which the wheel shall be sealed up and placed in the bank in this city, until the time of drawing when the Supervisors shall bring them to the place of drawing, break the seals and the drawing shall be disposed of by taking a ticket from each wheel at the same time, and the prize ticket taken from the prize wheel shall designate the prize drawn by the ticket corresponding in number to the one taken from the wheel at the same time.—The wheel shall be well shaken after each ticket is drawn.

The Supervisors will be gentlemen well known and noted for honesty and integrity, who will not be allowed to purchase tickets or own any stock in the Company. The numbers and prizes will be drawn from each wheel by two blind boys, and a full report of all numbers drawing prizes will be published in some prominent newspaper immediately after the drawing. Persons at a distance drawing prizes, may have them sent to any part of the United States they may desire.

Description of Real Estate.

SEVEN FINE RESIDENCES—FOUR IN THE CITY OF RALEIGH.

One in Warrenton, Warren county, N. C.

One Hotel in Taylorsville, county seat of Alexander county, N. C.

One lot consisting of 8 acres in Raleigh, about three fourths of a mile from the Capitol; about 2 acres in forest oak and hickory, house fronting on the street and about 50 feet back; walks to the house 15 feet wide, planted on either side with Emoisimus for hedge, with a marble statue of the goddess Flora on the one side—full size—a fine piece of sculpture, said to have cost $1,500, on the other side, Sun Dial on marble column, both on marble predesta's. Front pailings on the street, resting on hewed granite gate posts. The grounds in the grove are highly fertilized and well set with clover and orchard grass. The remaining six acres highly fertilized, producing, last year, besides much hay and vegetables, 4 bales of cotton.

The dwelling of brick, is 42x35 with conical metal roof, and two Franklin rods. In the basement is the kitchen, about 20 feet square and the dining room, 18x32 feet, and two pantries well fitted up. On the middle floor there are two large rooms, with fire places, and fine variegated marble mantles and a spacious hall and open room for enjoying the summer breezes. In the third story are two large and one small dormitory all with fire places, and a large passage with cases for wardrobe. In the attic story is a small dormitory, with stairs to scuttle in the roof.

There is a portico to the house 3x14 feet, with floor of hewed granite slabs. The steps of the building, in front and rear, are of hewed granite, with iron banisters, and all the door and window sills are of hewed granite, and all the sash hung on balances. The wood work of the building are of the choicest material, and the entire building recently painted.

The out houses consist of a barn 40x20 feet with basement walled with granite, large enough for 12 horses or cows, with shed in front and on the two ends, one end fitted up for four milch cows; a horse stable 14x18 feet; a carriage house 18x24 feet; a house for servants 18x37 feet, well finished, with two fire places, and recently painted, and has a good dry cellar; a brick smoke house 20x20 feet, of very high pitch shedded all round with wood, gear, and chicken house, under the shed; and a spacious ice house, walled with granite.

Through the grove passes a branch, with never-failing spring of pure cool water—immediately below this is a granite milk house, the water of the spring, which is very abundant, passes in a stone milk trough through the milk house, and discharges in a crystal fish pond, some 15x180 feet in which are large variety of fish, many of them so tame that they eat from fingers. Price $10,000.

One large and convenient house in the City of Raleigh, on New Berne street, thirteen large rooms, double parlors, with all necessary out buildings, 1½ acres of ground, and a beautiful oak grove. Value, $6 500.

One large house on Newbern and Bloodworth streets, containing twenty rooms, suitable for a boarding house, all necessary outbuildings, with a beautiful oak grove in the yard and 2 acre of ground. Value, $5 000.

One beautiful large residence, on Newbern street, eight rooms and basement, four out buildings and stable, seven acres of ground, elm. grove, very desirable and attractive.—Value, $8,000.

One in Warrenton, N. C, known as the Alston property, in perfect order, one of the best built houses in the State, containing 8 large rooms, double piazzas and porticos, one of the most commanding and beautiful residences in the place, with 8 acres of ground, one orchard, beautiful oak grove in the yard, and all necessary out buildings. Value, $5,000

The property at Taylorsville is very attractive, valuable and cheap. It is a Hotel at the county seat of a flourishing and growing village of a thousand or more inhabitants, and situated one square from a good and furnishing College, no school of better grade, right on the line of the Atlantic & Ohio Rail Road, and being situated in the mountain region, the scenery is truly delightful and fascinating. Contains twenty rooms, and the buildings are new. Value, $2,000.

One in Chapel Hill, containing four rooms, with fire places, and one forty feet dining room. Also, kitchen, out houses and one and three fourths acres of land. Value, $2,000.

Those ordering tickets can select any number from 1 to 73,347 if the number ordered has been taken, the number nearest will be sent. One three cents stamp must accompany every order. All tickets will have the seal of the Company and signature of the Secretary.

Persons living at a distance will be furnished with an official list of the drawing.

We refer to any Merchant, Banker or other Gentleman of standing in the city of Raleigh.

For further descriptions and particulars, address

JOHN SKINNER, Sec'y.

Raleigh, N. C.

P. S. Real estate wanted for the 2nd Drawing. Persons desiring to dispose of Real Estate through this Company will be required to send us a description, and a certificate of title, &c. Desirable property will be taken in any part of the United States for the second drawing.

Preference will be given to persons who purchase the largest number of Tickets in the present Drawing.

Goldsboro', June 17, 5-tf.

A GIRL that has lost her beau may as well hang up her fiddle.

Two Quaker girls were ironing on the same table. One asked the other which side she would take, the right or left.

She answered promptly—"It will be right for me to take the left, and then it will be left for thee to take the right."

AN Irishman who was troubled with toothache, determined to have an old offender extracted; but there being no dentist near, he resolved to do the job himself; whereupon he filled the excavarion with powder, but being afraid to touck it off, he put a slow match to it, lighted it, and then ran round the corner to get out of the way.

A POST was erected by the direction of the surveyors of old roads of Kent, some years ago, bearing the following inscription:—"This is a bridle path to Faversham; if you can't read this you had better keep the main road."

A DIVINE preached one Sunday morning from the text, "Ye are children of the devil," and in the afternoon by a funny coincidence, from the words, "Children, obey your parents."

THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC UPHELD BY THE CHURCH.—At a late meeting of the Orange County Temperance Society, the followiug resolution and preamble passed: "Whereas, The church is the light of the world, and her members are described as a peculiar people, zealous of good works—abstaining from the very appearance of evil; as not being partakers of men's sins nor standing in the way of sinners; as having no fellowship with the untruitful works of darkness, but rather reproving them; therefore, Resolved, In view of the clear light of the Scriptures and the moral sense of Christendom, we can not but regard those church-members who still persist in upholding the traffic, by signing liquor-sellers' petitions for license, as violating their covenant vows."

TURNIPS.—As the season is coming on for sowing this crop we give a few directions for planting, with description of some of the most approved varieties for farm or garden. The turnip has been cultivated as food for man and beast from time immemorial. In England it is, and in this country it will probably become, one of the staple farm products;

Early White Dutch.—A medium-sized flat turnip, of quick growth.—Juicy and of excellent quality.

White Top Strap Leaved and Red Top Strap Leaved are inferior to none the early sorts; round, flat, and medium size; very small tops, with but few leaves. Growth upright, tap-root very small.

White Globe.—This is of the most perfect globe shape; skin white and smooth; leaves dark green; strong and uniform grower. Keeps well, and is best suited to field culture.

Yellow Stone.—Is a very hard, round turnip; top small. Excellent to keep.

Yellow Globe.—The best of the yellow turnips for table use, and also a fine variety for a field crop. Good size and shape.

The fall crop is generally sown broadcast, but much the largest yields are obtained by drill culture.

Land newly cleared and burnt over and old pasture ground plowed during the summer, and well manured and ashed, will produce the clearest and best turnip.

The Ruta Baga or Swede forms a class more or less distinct in its many varieties. They are all hard, close-grained, and endure a considerable amount of cold without injury. Keep well with little trouble, but are not fit for table use until towards spring.—They are mostly grown as a field crop, and may be sown a little earlier than the fall crop of turnips.

Among the most desirable varieties are Skirving's Ruta Baga and White Swede.

USEFUL HINTS.—A bit of glue dissolved in skim milk will restore crape.

Ribbons of every kind should be washed in cold suds and not rinsed.

If your flat irons are rough rub them with fine salt and it will make them perfectly smooth.

A bit of soap rubbed on the hinges of a door will prevent its creaking.

Scotch snuff put in holes where crickets come out will destroy them.

Wood ashes and common salt wet with water will prevent the cracking of a stove.

Half a cranberry, it is said, bound on a corn will soon kill it.

A FRENCHMAN'S ENGLISH.—'Mine fren, have you seen von little poodle dog, with his tail slit and his ears cut short off behind, what I did lese next week, as I was walking up de river in de tam steam boat!' 'I did not, Monsieur, but expect to every minute.' 'Begar, if he be drown, I will kill him six times in two places.'

Sunflowers, when planted on an extensive scale, it has recently been asserted by experimenters in France and Holland, will neutralize the deleterious effects of exhalations from marshes. This plan has been tried with great success in the fenny districts near Rochefort, France, and the authorities of Holland assert that intermittent fever has entirely disappeared from districts where the sunflowers have been planted. Though the above facts appear to be proved, it is not yet ascertained what effect the sunflower produces on the atmosphere, whether it generates oxygen like other plants of rapid growth, or whether like the conebearers it emits ozone, and destroys the animal and vegetable germs of miasmas producing fever.

Gout.—The following "cure for the gout" is taken from an old work:

1. The person must pick a handkerchief from the pocket of a maid fifteen years old, who has never had a wish to change her condition.

2. He must wash it in an honest miller's pond.

3. He must dry it on a parson's hedge who was never covetous.

4. He must send it to a doctor's shop who never killed a patient.

5. He must mark it with a lawyer's ink who never cheated a client.

6. Apply it to the part affected, and a cure will speedily follow.

POPPING THE QUESTION.

BY A. SHORTFELLOW.

The sun was setting. My heart fluttered like a swallow's wing, and beat like a pheasant's in full blast.—Why? I was walking beside her.—Who? None of your business. I quote Byron:

"Who that dear loved one may be,
Is not for vulgar eyes to see."

We wandered arm in arm.—Like a snow flake dancing on a thistle was the touch of her hand to mine. It became more so. We wandered on. The western sky was blushing—so were we. A light breeze played softly with her rich auburn curls. We paused. I gazed upon her; she looked at her apron. We sat down on a log. She still looked at her apron. The crisis came. Those drooping eye lashes, those matchless curls, that delicious blush, that dimpled chin, that soft hand, that modest little foot, her pink dress, her white waist, her snowy neck, and, oh! the rich, pouting expression of those lips—I caved; dropped on my knees, and said briefly:

"Maiden of my choice, Pert of Duckville, young angel of my life's hopes, star of my destiny (here a mosquito alighted on her hand—I stopped to kill it,) matchless coquette, innocent flirt, angel of beauty and grace, cease your soaring, fold your shining wings, descend and dwell with me. O, dispel the gloom that shrouds my pathway. Annihilate my loneliness. Be the gaslight of my dwelling. Fan love's fever from my brow. Govern me, torment me, talk to me, sing to me, play for me, kiss me, coax me, love me, and cook my coffee."

She looked bewildered and said: "Let's go home."

The subject was dropped.

A drunken man walking along the street at night with his head thrown back, looking at the moon with sovereign contempt, was heard to exclaim: "You needn't be so proud Madame Moon, You are full once a month and I every night."

Poor paymasters should learn wisdom from the mosquito, who always settles his bill, the moment he finds you.

A Dutchman went into a cooper shop and asked for an empty barrel of flour to make his dog a hen coop.

IMPORTANT DECISIONS.

We learn from the Standard that the Supreme Court has decided, all the Judges concurring, that intermarriage between a member of the colored race and a member of the white race is unlawful and therefore void, according to the laws of North Carolina.

The Court has also decided, Chief Justice Pearson alone dissenting, that the homestead and personal property exemption, provided for by the Constitution and the laws of North Carolina, is constitutional and retrospective, that it operates to protect the property against debts contracted prior to the adoption of the Constitution. This decision will be heard with joy by the masses of the people of this State who are struggling to recover from the pecuniary wreck in which they were left by the war.

The Supreme Court has also decided that the appropriation to the University Rail Road Company, and all similar lines of roads, to be unconstitutional and void.

Hook and Ladder Company.

On Friday evening last, agreeable to an announcement, a meeting of citizens having declared their intention to become members of a Hook and Ladder Company was held in the Court House for the purpose of organizing said company.

On motion, Wm. Taylor was called to the chair and Mr. J. A. Bonitz was chosen Secretary.

The Secretary called the roll of those having already declared their intention of becoming members, fifteen answered to their respective names. This being a quorum, the meeting proceeded to business.

The election of officers being next in order, on motion, a committee of five, consisting of Dr. A. C. Davis, J. M. Scott, J. H. Parker, Sol. Weil and Edward Leitner, was appointed by the chair to recommend suitable officers.

After a short consultation Dr. Davis, of the committee, reported the following selections:

For Foreman.—Benj. E Smith.
1st Assistant.—Geo. E. Taylor.
2nd " Jno Mayhood.
Secretary.—J. A. Bonitz.
Treasurer.—John H. Powell.

On motion, the report of the committee was received and adopted, and the officers were declared duly elected.

Moved and seconded that the chair appoint a committee of three to prepare By-Laws for the company and report same by next meeting. Carried.

The chair appointed as committee:
Dr. Adam C. Davis,
Jno. H. Powell,
E. B. Borden.

On motion, the Foreman of the company was requested to notify his Honor the Mayor, that an organization had been effected and request that the Hook and Ladder apparatus be turned over to the company.

Whereupon the meeting adjourned to meet again in the Court House on Friday next, July 30th.

Meeting of the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. of North Carolina.

Tarboro' N. C., July 20, 1869.

The Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. of North Carolina convened at 3 o'clock this day in the Hall of Edgecombe Lodge No. 50, and was called to order by M. W. G. M. Caldwell.

Prayer by the Chaplain.

Upon the call of the roll the following officers were found to be present:

R. A. Caldwell, M. W. G. M.
O. W. Telfair, R. W. D. G. M.
J. C. Wood, " G. W.
J. W. Gulick, " G. S.

The Lodge then adjourned until to-morrow at 8 o'clock.

Wednesday Morning, July, 21st, 8 o'clock.

The Lodge met this morning, D. G. M. Telfair in the Chair.

Prayer by the G. Chaplain.

Most of the morning session was occupied with the reports of the several committees:

Rep. Yopp offered the following:

Whereas, A resolution was passed at a regular session of this Grand Lodge in 1856, fixing the aid of admission into this Order at 45 years; be it

Resolved, That said resolution be rescinded, and that this matter of admission to membership be left to local legislation.

After some discussion it was referred to a committee consisting of G. M. Caldwell and Reps. Yopp and Barnes, which committee, after a short time, made a report recommending its adoption, which was agreed to by the Lodge.

It was decided to hold the next session of this Grand Lodge on the 3d Tuesday in July, 1870, at Goldsboro', N. C.

The Lodge then adjourned until 3½ o'clock.

3½ o'clock.

The Lodge met according to adjournment, D. G. M. Telfair in the Chair.

The time having arrived which had been set apart for the election of officers, the election was gone into with the following result.

D. D. G. M. 2d District, W. J. Yopp.

Installing officer Cape Fear Lodge, R. J. Jones.

Nothing else of importance transacted.

The Lodge closed to meet at 8½ o'clock to-morrow morning.

To-morrow morning the officers will be installed, the secret work of the Order gone through with, and the session will wind up with a big supper at night. Y.

Narrow Escape From Being Buried Alive.

On Thursday morning last, a colored man named Charles Johnson, who was carrying mortar for a new house in process of construction at Nashville, Tenn., was attacked with sunstroke and apparently died. An inquest was held, and a verdict rendered in accordance with the examination of two well known physicians.—The coroner thereupon ordered an undertaker to carry a coffin to Johnson's abode, which was immediately done, and now comes the remarkable escape from being buried alive, which is thus related by a Nashville paper:

"The coffin was promptly forwarded, arriving at Johnson's dwelling at half-past three o'clock Thursday afternoon. Johnson was placed in it, the lid was about to hide his form forever, when the family discovering that his body was still warm, preferred to keep it until the following (Friday) morning. Mr. Groomes readily acquiesced in their desire, and promised to return with a hearse in the morning and convey his remains to their last resting place. Late that afternoon Johnson showed signs of life by moving uneasily in his narrow and confined couch. He was shortly after taken out of the coffin, placed upon a bed, and such restoratives administered as brought him safely back to life. Johnson is now able to walk about, and the coffin in which he was put still remains in his abode. Since Johnson's recovery, he has been congratulated by all his friends, both white and black, who had heard of the circumstance."

Good Advice.—The New York Times gives the following good advice in regard to the value of a local newspaper:

"What tells so readily the standard of a town or city as the appearance of a newspaper? And its youth or age can be as well defined by the observing as by a personal notice. The enterprise of its citizens is depicted by its advertisements, their liberality by the looks of the paper. Some papers show a good solid, healthy foundation, philathoric purposes, and a well-to-do appearance generally; others showing a striving to contend with the grasping thousands around them trying to wrench to it an existence from the general community around them. A newspaper is like a church; it wants fostering and liberal encouragement, then, as a general thing it can walk alone, and reflect credit upon its locationr Take your home paper; it gives more news of immediate interest the other papers; it talks for you when other localities belie you; it stands up for your rights; you always have a champion in your home paper; and those who stand up for you should certainly be well sustained. Your interests are kindred and equal, and you must rise or fall together. Therefore, it is your interest to support your home paper—not grudgingly, but in a liberal spirit—as an investment that will amply repay the expenses.

DIED,

In Goldsboro', N. C., on the morning of the 20th inst., William Bender, infant son of Dr. Windal T., and Fannie Robinson, aged five months and nine days.

GRAND RATIFICATION MEETING.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Conservatives and Republicans of Goldsboro' Township was held at the Court House on Monday evening, the 26th instant, for the purpose of ratifying the compromise ticket, for County Officers, nominated at a subsequent meeting.

On motion, Mayor Whitaker was called to the Chair, and J. B. Whitaker, Jr., requested to act as Secretary.

The following compromise ticket was submitted to the meeting and unanimously adopted:

For Magistrates:
John Robinson,
J. W. Gulick,
Dr. Jas. Hay,
Wm. B. Thompson,
J. B. Whitaker,
T. A. Granger.

School Committee:
Wm. Robinson,
L. J. Nixon,
Jas. A. Howell.

Township Clerk:
Jas. M. Hollowell.

Constable:
W. H. Smith.

After the adoption of the ticket, Mr. Wm. Robinson being loudly called for responded in congratulatory terms at the compromise which had just effected, and avowed his intention to give the nominations his hearty support. Mr. Robinson was repeatedly interruped in his speech by loud applause which his well timed remarks elicited.

Mr. Wm. Robinson was followed by Jno. Robinson, Esq., who, at the close of his remarks, moved that the Chair appoint a committee to make arrangements for a Grand Ratification Barbecue, to be given on the 4th of August, at the residence of Maj. Clark, about two miles from Goldsboro'; which motion was adopted, and the following gentlemen appointed, viz: Ned Nixon, Calvin Best, Jas. Hubs, Benj. Bizzell, Isaac Peacock, H. L. Grant, T. A. Granger, Sanders Cox, Sanford Haines, W. Hop Smith, Moses Cooper, Blount King and John Whitted.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

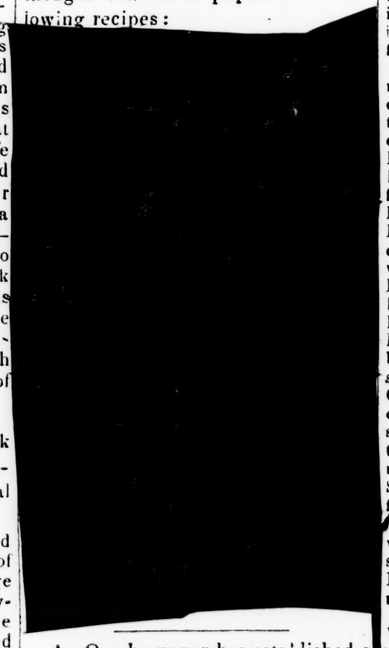
Tomato Wine and Catsup.—As we are just now in the midst of the tomato season, and as every year the good house-keeper desires to acquaint herself with all the modes of making wine and catsup from said vegetable for the use of her family, we have thought it useful to puplish the following recipes:



An Omaha paper has established a department of betrothals. The only remaining item of intelligence of this character to be seized upon and published in the papers is 'flirtations,' the publication of which has hitherto been monopolized by sewing societies and quilting parties.

Young ladies, our fashion gossip says, are to wear 'squate bodies.'—Will they prevent the beaux from coming round?

A most remarkable case of death occurred a few days since on the farm of Mr. Edward Coles. A colored child five or six years of age climbed over into the hog lot and caught a young pig by the tail. A number of hogs, attracted by the squealing of the pig, made an attack on the child and mangled it in such a manner as to cause its death in a few hours. The poor child was dragged by the hogs some twenty yards, and besides the mutilation of its body and face, had one foot and one arm eaten entirely off.—Charlottesville Chronicle.

Dutcher's Lightning Fly-Killer! Death to the Living! Long live the Killers!
Sold by Dealers Everywhere!

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER Has become an article of commerce,—which no medicine ever became before. It is as much an item in every bill of goods sent to country merchants as tea, coffee, or sugar.—This speaks volumes in its favor.—Glens' Falls Messenger.

Rev. H. L. Van Meter, Burmah, writes, "The Pain Killer has become an almost indispensable article in my family."

Hundreds of missionaries give similar testimony of its virtues.

Rev. J. G. Stearns writes, "I consider it the best remedy for Dyspepsia I ever knew."

Rev. Jabez S. Swan says, "I have used it for years in my family, and consider it an invaluable remedy."

Rev. M. H. Bixby writes, "I have had occasion to use the Pain Killer very frequently during my residence in Burmah and have found it a very useful medicine. I did not think I could visit the jungles without it.—In case of Cholera, Diarrhœa, and Cholera, the Pain Killer gives speedy relief, and for many other ailments I have found it beneficial It is popular in Burmah, among the natives as well as Europeans. I always carry it with me for my own benefit, and the good of the people where I go.

Manhood.—In the young and rising generation, the vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid hue, the lack lustre eye and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversivns of the ever changing scenes of the city, the powers of the body too much enfeebled to give zest to healthful and rural exercise. thoughts are turned inwards upon themselves.

If the patient be a female, the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety, as the first symptom in which Nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on; the energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so fascinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain; the parent's heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu, for Weakness arising from excesses or early indiscretion, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness. Horror of Disease, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Dreadful Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness. Dimness of Vision, Langour, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Often Enormous Appetite with Dyspeptic Symptoms, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the Eyes, with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of Attention Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing is more desirable to such patients than Solitude, and nothing they more dread, for Fear of Themselves; no Repose of Manner, no Earnestness, no Speculation, but a hurried Transition from one question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this Medicine invariably removes—soon follow Loss of Power, Fatuity, and Epileptic Fits, in one of which the patient may expire.

During the Superintendendence of Dr. Wilson at the Bloomingdale Asylum, this sad result occurred to two patients; reason had for a time left them, and both died of epilepsy. They were of both sexes, and about twenty years of age.

Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by these direful diseases Insanity and Consumption? The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden and quite destitute—neither Mirth or Grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate.

"With woeful measures wan Despair
Low sullen sounds their grief beguiled."

Whilst we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer an invaluable gift of chemistry for the removal of the consequences. Helmbold's Highly Concentrated Fluid Extract of Buchu. There is no tonic like it. It is an anchor of hope to the surgeon and patient, and this is the testimony of all who have used or prescribed it.

TRIBUTE TO THE MEMORY OF JOHN B. GRISWOLD.

"Life is but air,
That opens to the whistling swor',
And closes when 'tis gone."

The "Silent Reaper" has again visited our community and plucked from the bosom of a devoted and affectionate family one of the best of men. It is with no feelings of ordinary sorrow that we announce the death of JOHN B. GRISWOLD, ESQ., which took place at his residence in this town on Wednesday morning last. Twenty years ago we came to Goldsboro' and formed an intimate acquaintance with the deceased, and through the whole length of that time our intercourse has been of the most friendly character; and we today mourn the loss of one of our dearest friends. For many years he was a member of Wayne Lodge of Masons, and from him we have received many acts of brotherly love and Masonic affection. But "It is appointed unto all men once to die," and the dread mandate must be obeyed. Death goes his destined round, taking into his cold embrace, without distinction, the old and young, rich and poor, sick and well—none knoweth where the shaft may strike. In the prime of life, kind and genial to every one, open-hearted and generous to excess, his hand ever ready to relieve the wants and distresses of his fellow-creatures; beloved by all, and more especially by those who, through their close intimacy with him, could read the generous throbbings of his heart; with a gifted family around him, looking with that reverence and love due to a kind and loving husband and father, in the meridian of life, was summoned on the morning of the 21st of July, 1869, from his career of usefulness on earth, by the grim Tiler Death, into the full effulgence of light irradiating from the throne of our Supreme and Most High Master.

It is difficult to realize that our brother is dead. We look around upon the familiar places which have known him so long, now, alas, to know him no more forever, with emotions too strong for words. No more will he kneel with us around our altar, no more shall our Lodge Room be enlivened by his presence, his labors on earth are ended, he has

"No more occasion for Level or Plumb-line,
For Trowel or Gavel, for Compass or Square."

His death teaches us a solemn lesson of the uncertainty of life. At most, a brief term is allotted to man on earth—we who weep to-day may be wept for to-morrow. But a few weeks since, and our brother was travelling with us the rugged path of life, mingling with us in vigor, activity and health, and now he is quietly reposing in "that narrow house appointed for all the living;" but we are admonished by the evergreen that our brother shall live again; "the body that the grave enfolds is not he, but only the house in which he dwelt, until God laid His finger on him as he slept. He was mortal but has now put on immortality." Our friend and brother is in the hands of a merciful Savior who loved him, but he has not wholly gone from among us, and while Nature will have her way, and our tears drop upon his grave, we are comforted by the thought that the wondrous power of memory will enable us to recall his features, and in imagination see him as we saw him when living, grasp his hand in a brotherly clasp, and hold communion with his thoughts, until we, too, are called beyond the "silent river."

Let it then be our endeavor while we are journeying over life's checkered pavement, to so live that when God sends His Angel to us with the scroll of Death, may we, like the brother whose death we so deeply deplore, lay our heads down softly, and go to sleep, with a full trust in Him who doeth all things well.

The mortal remains of brother Griswold were taken to St. Stephen's Church, from whence his funeral took place on Thursday morning, and were followed to the "city of the dead" by the members of the Masonic Order, and a long procession of sorrowing relatives and friends.

FATAL AFFRAY BETWEEN MILITIAMEN.—While a portion of Boziers Militia who were returning from Jones County, were in this place on Wednesday evening last, awaiting the departure of the western train, an affray occurred between a number of them, the circumstances connected with which are as follows, vide the testimony given before Squire Whitaker on Thursday:

Edward Morse being duly sworn stated that while in Goldsboro' on Wednesday last, a difficulty arose between W. H. Putney and Andrew McGuire and in endeavoring to part them, he was accidentally cut in the neck, by a knife in the hands of Putney. This difficulty which was stopped for the time was renewed at the car-shed, and in again endeavoring to part them he was struck from behind and wounded by a bayonet in the hands of some person to him unknown.

Further testimony proved C. M. Hood, a member of the company, to have been the person who thrust the bayonet in the body of Morse, inflicting a serious, and then thought to be mortal, wound.

Jefferson Bastion being sworn said that he was a member of the militia detail, and that the first Sergeant of the company William Walker, in endeavoring to quiet a disturbance or quarrel between Putney and McGuire, took from a stack of guns a musket with bayonet fixed, and thrust it into the back of Putney.

From the effects of this wound Putney died at about 9½ o'clock on the same evening of the occurrence of the affray, and his body was carried to Raleigh on Thursday, attended by Bozier, one or two other militiamen, and Morse, the wounded man who is improving.

Hood is now held in custody and proper steps have been taken for the arrest of Walker.

FOR FAMILY USE, AND THE MEDICAL PROFESSION, "Binninger's Old London Dock Gin" is now endorsed by prominent physicians, chemists and connoisseurs, as possessing all those intrinsic medicinal qualities (tonic and diuretic) which belong to an old and pure gin. The Chemical Journal and Medical Gazette says of it: "The writer must remark that Messrs. A. M. Bininger & Co., 15 Beaver Street New York, merit the gratitude of the entire medical profession, as well as the world at large, for having introduced a stimulant of such unexceptionable purity and unequivocal power, both as a preventive and curative agent, and a harmless exhilarative beverage."

Here is what the New York Press says of the Biningers:

The Biningers, No. 5 Beaver Street have a very high reputation to sustain as the oldest and best house in New York.—Home Journal.

The house of A. M. Bininger & Co., No. 15 Beaver St., has sustained for a period of ninety years a reputation that may well be envied.—N. Y. Evening Post.

The name of Bininger & Co., No. 15 Beaver Street, is a guarantee of the exact and literal truth of whatever they represent.—N. Y. Com. Advertiser.

The importing house of Bininger & Co., No. 15 Beaver Street, is conducted upon principles of integrity, fairness and the highest honor.—N. Y. Evening Express.

This superb Gin (Bininger's Old London Dock Gin) has attained a popularity without precedent in the history of the trade.—Herald.

☞ Capt. S. S. Lee, formerly of the United States Navy, and recently of the Confederate Navy and Commander at Drewry's Bluff, died at Richland, in Stafford County, Va., on the 22d inst. He was a brother of General Robert E. Lee, and brother-in-law of Hon. James M. Mason, having married that gentleman's sister.

Our business men should remember that all trades and business licenses issued by the Sheriff are not valid unless countersigned by the Register of Deeds, who is required to record the same. Any person using a license issued by the Sheriff and not countersigned by the Register of Deeds is subject to a fine of twenty doltars for every day he plies his trade or practices his profession, and in default of paying said fine, he is subject to one month imprisonment for each day.

Editor Augusta Chronicle, Augusta.
J. W. Alonzo Parker, Kinsembo, South of Africa.

Queen Victoria is said to be failing in health. The London Medical Times and Gazette says the presence of a crowd or a succession of persons who are presented at court produces on her nervous system the giddiness and other symptoms common to landsmen at sea. The Gazette adds that, considering her Majesty's habits of punctuality, and the hard labor and anxiety she has undergone during her happily protracted reign, it cannot be a matter of surprise that the nervous system should become fatigued.

THE SCHOOL DAY VISITOR for August, filled to running over with most excellent matter for the young folks, is before us. This monthly is published by Daughaday & Becker, 424 Walnut St., Philadelphia, at $1,25 a year.

The Children's Hour is as beautiful as the best typography and best artists in the country can make it. It seeks to inspire children with reverence for God and a sense of his loving and fatherly care; and to lead them to unselfish actions. Edited by T. S. Arthur, Philadelphia. Price $1,25 per annum.

Arthur's Home Magazine is another very fine monthly. The August number, now before us, has a rich and varied table of contents, embracing a wide range of subjects. Address T. S. Arthur & Sons, 809 Chestnut St., Philadelphia. Terms, $2 a year.

Once A Month, by T. S. Arthur & Sons, is one of the most beautifully printed magazines we have ever seen. This Magazine is furnished at $2 a year. Address, 809 Chestnut St., Philadelphia.

A NEW NOVELET BY MRS. HENRY WOOD.—In the SATURDAY EVENING POST of July 17th, a new Serial is begun by the celebrated author of "East Lynne." It is called "GEORGE CANTERBURY'S WILL," and opens in this author's usual interesting manner.—An extra edition will be printed of the early numbers of this story, but those wishing it would do well to apply early. Sample copies of THE POST, containing the opening chapters, will be sent gratis. Price of THE POST, $2.50 a year; four copies, $6.00 Address H. Peterson & Co., 319 Walnut Street, Philadelphia.

THE UNIVERSE.—The second volume with the title changed to THE UNIVERSE, the first number of which is received. It is enlarged to an eight-page sheet, and contains the commencement of a story by Mrs. Corbin, entitled, "Married, or a Woman's Deception;" a capital story by Mrs. Jennie T. Hazen.—"Daisy, or the Married Man's Story," and a great variety of other matter. Among the principal articles is one on "Spiritualism a Moral and Social Necessity," by Robert Dale Owen, and many on various phases of the "Woman Question," and Spiritualism. Published weekly, at $2,50 per year, by H. N. F. Lewis, 113 Madison st., Chicago.

THE ECLECTIC for August has been received with a rich table of contents, as follows:

Embellishment: Prof. T. H. Huxley; The Religious Wars of France, Quarterly Review; Scientific Education; by Prof Huxley, Macmillan's Magazine; Lecky's "History of European Morals." Macmillan's Magazine; Earthquakes, Quarterly Review: Rawlinson's Five Great Monarchies of the Ancient East (Concluded), British Quarterly; The Secret of the North Pole. St. Paul's; Opening of the Albert N'Yanza, Colburn's Monthly; Wallenstein and his Times.—Part II, Cornhill Magazine; Only Seven Years Old when She Died, Chamber's Journal; He Knew He was Right.—Chaps xxix., xxx., xxxi. Anthony Trollope; The Central Asian Question, Belgravia; Playing with Lightning, All the Year Round; Professor Huxley, The Editor; Poetry, Literary Notices, Science, Art, Varieties.

Terms of the Eclectic. Single copies, 45 cents; one copy, one year, $5.00; two copies, one year, $9.00; five copies, one year, $20.00.

Address E. R. PELTON, Publisher, 108 Fulton St., New York.

THE great ecclesiastical trial in Chicago has commenced. Rev. Mr. Cheney is being tried before an Episcopal board for alleged unauthorized omissions—mainly of the word "regenerate"—in the baptismal rites of the Church. Mr. Cheney is rector of Christ Episcopal church, in Chicago.

LECTURE.—The Rev. John R. Brooks, Grand Lecturer for the Friends of Temperance in North Carolina, will deliver a lecture on the very important theme of Temperance, in the Methodist Church in this place, to-night (Tuesday), the 27th instant, at 8½ o'clock. Our citizens are earnestly solicited to attend.

☞ Let the colored people remember that an excursion for their benefit will take place, under the management of Louis Carver, on Friday and Saturday next, the 30th and 31st instant. Fare for the round trip, only $2.00.

COLLIER, FULGHUM & CO.—The card of this firm appears in our issue to-day. The members of this new business house are men of large experience, reliable, responsible, and possessing unequalled business qualifications. They propose to conduct business strictly upon the Cash System, and while confining themselves principally to the Commission business, they will deal, to some extent, in Pork, Fish, Flour, Grain, Bagging, Ties, &c. These articles they will be prepared to furnish in a few days.

We learn that they are also perfecting arrangements to make liberal cash advances on Cotton, and other produce consigned to their correspondents in Boston, New York and Wilmington, during the coming season.

Capt. R. T. Fulghum, though not a member of the firm, will have entire control of the business. Of his well known ability to conduct a commercial business, 'tis useless for us to say anything. Energetic, polite, and ever ready to serve his friends, we bespeak for Messrs. Collier Fulghum & Co.; through his management, an extensive and successful business career. Store and office under the NEWS printing establishment.

☞ The meeting on Monday night, of citizens; and not politicians, was the largest and most enthusiastic gathering that has been held in this town for a long time. The Court House was well filled with the bone and sinew of the country, and unanimously adopted as their ticket in the approaching election, the gentlemen whose names appear in the proceedings.

This is a ticket for which men of every shade of opinion can cast their suffrages, and we hope all citizens who desire peace and good government, equal rights and justice, will come out heartily, forgetting old prejudices, if they have any, and elect this ticket. It is the best that could have been selected under the circumstances, and will, we have no doubt, be elected by an overwhelming majority.

For the News.

A FENIAN WAR-CHANT.

Respectfully inscribed as a token of kind remembrance to
TIGHEARNAN TU SHIN.

BY ERINAGH, GOLDSBORO', N. C.

AIR—Cammeronian March.

Whence that wild shout which resounds thro' the valley,
That startles the eagle from eyrie so high?
How defiant it rings! "Friends of Liberty rally!"
'Tis the Fenian war-whoop, "Let's conquor or die!"
Lo the fell strife's begun!
Who would the combat shun,
Branded with infamy let them remain
Ours still the shout shall be,
"Death! death or victory!"
Cead mil a faultie we'll try them again

Wrongs which thro' ages of misrule oppress'd us,
By Reason we hop'd to redress, but in vain;
The more we were patient, the more they oppress'd us,
Till patience no more is for virtue a name.
On! in the God's that just,
Let us confiding trust;
We won Waterloo—now 'tis Erin we claim;
On! then, ye Fenian brave,
Down with the Saxon knave!
Cead mil a faultie, we'll try them again!

The cry from Ben Nedir* awakes Connemara,
Cape Clear wakes an echo in the Giant's old loom;
Clan Macarty responds to the Clan Macnamara,
And the welkin resounds with base Albion's doom.
Oh, let the strife begin,
Sons of the valiant Finn!
Nor longer inglorious, inactive remain;
But let the Sunburst wave
In triumph o'er Emmet's grave,
Cead mil a faultie, we'll try them again!

*BEN NEDIR—The ancient name of the Hill of Howth. The "Giants' loom," a well known assemblage of rocky pillars in the vicinity of the Giante's Causey.

Barbecue.

There will be a Grand Barbecue spread in the grove in front of the residence of Major C. H. Clark, about three miles from town, on the Stauntonsburg road, on Wednesday, the 4th of August next, to which all the citizens of this Township, white and colored, who desire peace and favor the election of the compromise ticket, are cordially invited to partake.

KOSKOO, the great Liver Invigorator, Blood Purifier, and Renovator, prepared by Dr. J. J. Lawrence, the celebrated Physician and Chemist, is a SAFE, PLEASANT, and RELIABLE remedy, for the PREVENTION and CURE of all diseases caused by A TORPID LIVER, IMPURE BLOOD, DISORDERS of the KIDNEYS, or DEBILITY of the NERVOUS SYSTEM.

It REGULATES the secretions, ERADICATES all HUMORS or TAINTS, restores lost or wasted nervous power, and at the same time builds up and imparts tone and vigor to the whole system.

☞ See advertisement of Bininger's Old London Dock Gin—for medicinal purposes, which appears in our issue of to-day.

A NOTICEABLE FACT.—That one way of appealing to a man's reason is through his eye. In these busy times men are so deeply immersed in the conduct of magnificent projects, that they forget all about the condition of their systems, and hence it is that the Proprietors of the PLANTATION BITTERS, which cures Dyspepsia, purifies the blood, improves the tone of the stomach, regulates the bowels, and, indeed, invigorates the whole inner man, are so active in advertising. In fact, advertisements are merely sky-rockets sent up to attract attention to a really good article.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price.

A CURIOUS ACCIDENT.—Edward Nolde met with a very curious and distressing accident. He was taking a drink of water from a glass tumbler. Before he had swallowed the first mouthful of water he discovered that he had swallowed several sharp sewing needles. He gave a tremendous cough, and finally succeeded in spitting out one of the needles, but two of them had become fastened far down his throat; and had lodged so that they could not be forced down or up. A surgeon was at once summoned, who, after examining the location and position of the needles, announced that they would have to be cut from the throat. An incision was therefore made, large enough through which to extract the needless. The needles had been carelessly placed in the tumbler before being taken from the cupboard, and were not discovered when the water was poured into it at the table.—Louisville (Ky.) Times.

Grand Excursion to BEAUFORT,

ON FRIDAY AND SATURDAY,
the 30th and 31st instant.

THE COLORED PEOPLE OF Goldsboro', and vicinity, will give a Grand Excursion to Beaufort, and other points of interest on the Eastern shore, on Friday and Saturday, July 30th and 31st, 1869.

A special train, chartered for the occasion, will leave Goldsboro' on Friday, at 7 o'clock, A. M., arriving at Morehead City at 12 o'clock, M. Returning leave Morehead, on Saturday, at 2 o'clock, P. M., arriving at Goldsboro' at 7 o'clock, P. M.

An excellent Brass Band will be in attendance, and the GRAND BALL, to be given on Friday evening, will form an attractive feature of the entertainment.

A FINE DINNER, under the management of Messrs. Larry Nixon and Calvin Best, will be given on Saturday.

It is hoped that all the colored gentlemen in the community will use their influence to make this the grandest affair of the season.

Tickets for the round trip, $2,00.

Persons desirous of attending must purchase tickets before the 30th.

Goldsborough News.

WEDNESDAY JULY 28, 1869.

THE DEAF AUNT AND WIFE.

I had an aunt coming to visit me for the first time since my marriage, and I don't know what evil genius prompted the wickedness which I perpetrated toward my wise and ancient relation.

"My dear," said I to my wife on the day before my aunt's arrival, "you know Aunt Mary is coming to-morrow. Well, I forgot to mention a rather annoying circumstance with regard to her. She is very deaf, although she can hear my voice, to which she is accustomed, in its ordinary tones; yet you will be obliged to speak extremely loud in order to be heard. It will be rather inconvenient, but I know you will do everything in your power to make her visit agreeable."

Mrs. —— announced her determination to make herself heard, if in her power.

I then went to John N——, who loves a joke about as well as any person I know of, and told him to be at the house at six P. M. on the following evening; and, comparatively happy, I went to the railroad depot with a carriage, next night, and when I was on my way home with my aunt, I said:

"My dear aunt, there is one rather annoying infirmity that Annie (my wife) has, which I forgot to mention before. She is very deaf, and although she can hear my voice, to which she is accustomed, in its ordinary tones, yet you will be obliged to speak extremely loud in order to be heard. I am very sorry for it."

Aunt Mary, in the goodness of her heart, protested that she rather liked speaking loud, and to do so would afford her a great pleasure.

The carriage drove up—on the steps was my wife—in the window was John N——, with a face as solemn as if he had buried his relatives that afternoon.

"I am delighted to see you," shrieked my wife. And the policeman on the opposite sidewalk started, and my aunt came near falling down the steps.

"Kiss me, my dear," bawled my aunt. And the windows shook as with the fever and ague. I looked at the window—John had disappeared. Human nature could stand it no longer. I poked my head into the carriage and went into convulsions.

When I entered the parlor, my wife was helping Aunt Mary to take off her hat and cap; and there sat John, with his face buried in his handkerchief.

Suddenly, "Did you have a pleasant journey?" went off my wife like a pistol, and John nearly jumped to his feet.

"Rather dusty," was the response in a war-whoop, and the conversation continued.

The neighbors for blocks around must have heard it. When I was in the third story of the building, I heard every word of it.

In the course of the evening, my aunt took occasion to say to me:

"How loud your wife talks!"

I told her deaf persons talked loudly, and that my wife, being used to me, was not affected by the exertion, and that she was getting along very nicely with her.

Presently my wife said softly:

"Alf, how very loud your aunt talks!"

"Yes," said I, "all deaf persons do. You're getting along with her finely; she hears every word you say." And I rather think she did.

Elated at their success at being understood, they went at it hammer and tongs, till everything upon the mantel-piece clattered again, and I was seriously afraid of a crowd collecting in front of the house.

But the end was near. My aunt, being of an investigating turn of mind, was desirous of finding out whether the exertion of talking was injurious to my wife. So—

"Doesn't talking so loud strain your lungs?" said she, in an unearthly whoop, for her voice was not quite as musical as when she was young.

"It is an exertion," shrieked my wife.

"Then why do you do it?" was the answering scream.

"Because—because—you cannot hear if I don't," squealed my wife.

"What!" said aunt, fairly rivaling a railroad whistle at the time.

I began to think it time to evacuate the premises; and looking around and seeing John, I stepped into the back parlor; and there he lay flat on his back, with his feet at right angles with his body, rolling from side to side, with his fist poked into his ribs and a most agonized expression of countenanee, but not uttering a sound. I immediately and involuntarily assumed a similar attitude, and I think from the relative position of our feet and heads, and our attempt to restrain our laughter, apoplexy must inevitably have ensued, if a horrible groan, which John gave vent to in his endeavor to suppress his risibility, had not betrayed our hiding place.

INTEMPERANCE.

O! must this mighty tide of death
  Forever onward flow?
Must beauty, wealth, and virtue die,
And gushing fount of love be dry,
  Before its cursed glow?
Must all that's lovely good and true,
Vanish like drops of early dew,
  And gladness end in woe?

Not as the flame the dross consumes
  Till only gold remains:—
Not as from earth the tiny seed,
Decaying, lifts its tiny head
  To deck the hill and plain;—
This liquid fire consumes the worth
And only gives prolific birth
  To want, disgrace, and pain.

Can ye be men who idly stand
  While wretched victims wail!
Who shut your eyes and stop your ears,
  Lest, on the passing gale
You hear the angry billows roar,
And see them dashing just before,
  Till nothing can avail?

Do ye not know the torrent swells
  E'en now at your own door?
That not your noble sons alone,
But queenly daughters, more than one,
  Have felt its scorching power?
Do ye not know the many holes
Through which the hellish current rolls,
  To sweep our hamlet o'er?

O, rise! and stay the burning flood,
  Let all the founts be dry;
O! snatch, before it be too late,
Your darlings from their threatened fate,
  For their salvation fly.
God bids you speed the labor on,
And mortals pray it soon be done;
  O, hear, and trust and try.

Shun the ruby bowl although it may be tendered you by the fair hand of one you love. Remember the declaration "at the last it biteth like a serpent and stingeth like an adder."

"No cards" is a very fashionable appendage to a wedding notice and we have thought of another sentence that would speak volumes in behalf of any couple. It is "no wine."

"How is your husband, Mrs. Squipps?" "Why the doctor says as how if he lives till morning, he shall have some hopes of him; but if he don't he must give him up."

Did you see me when I had taken more than you thought I could carry?"

"No, I cannot say that I have, but I have seen you when I thought you had better have gone twice for it."

The man who attempted to look into the future had the door slammed in his face.

A concert singer having murdered a tune, subsequently tried his voice and acquitted himself.

"This is a funny cheese, Uncle Joe but where shall I cut it?" "Oh," said the grinning friend, "cut it where you like." "Very well," said the Yankee, coolly putting it under his arm, "I'll cut it at home."

A northern English rector used to think it polite not to begin service before the arrival of the squire. A little while ago he forgot his manners, and began. "When the wicked man ——" "Stop, sir," called out the clerk, "he aint come yet."

An ill-natured editor says the women all use paint and he sets his face against it.

A young poet offered his play to one of the theatres for nothing. The manager said the author knew the exact value of it.

A lad applied to the captain of a vessel for a berth: the captain, wishing to intimidate him, handed him a piece of rope, and said, "If you wan to make a good sailor, you must make three ends to the rope." "I can do it," he readily replied; "here is one, and here is another—that makes two. Now, here's the third," and he threw it overboard."

A Dutchman, being asked how often he shaved replied, "Dree dimes a week effery tay but Soontays den I shaves effery tay.

Below we give for the benefit of those suffering from Piles, a few Testimonials from those who have suffered, and been completely cured by the use of Congleton's Vegetable Salve:

TESTIMONIALS;

Williamston, Martin Co., February 22nd, 1869.

Mr. Jno. R. Congleton, Raleigh, N. C.

Dear Sir:—For the last eight or ten years I have been exceedingly troubled with a painful and distressing case of the Piles Hearing "Congleton's Vegetable Salve" spoken so highly of as the great cure for Piles, I purchased in March, 1868, while in Washington, N. C, one box, and was soon relieved, and by the time I had used the contents of the box, I was perfectly well, and have never had any return since. I consider myself entirely and permanently cured. I give this for the benefit of those who may be troubled with the same disease, believing thereby that I will be benefiting them, and recommending to them a most valuable medicine and worthy of great praise

I have also used the salve for Sore Throat, and find it the best medicine I ever had in my family for that complaint.

Respectfully yours,
JAS H ELLISON.

THE MOST EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF PILES ON RECORD

Wake County, N. C, Feb. 1st, 1868

Mr. Congleton—Dear Sir:—It is with pleasure that I humbly contribute to the efficacy of your Vegetable Salve, in the cure of Piles. I have been afflicted with said disease some twenty five years, more or less. I have tried various remedies, but found no cure until I was advised by a friend in Raleigh to try your Salve, which I have done, and am at present perfectly well. I have used only one box, which I think, it judiciously used, will cure any case like mine.

I would advise all afflicted with said disease to go and do likewise

Yours respectfully,
HENRY UTLEY

THE AMERICAN

Rheumatic Liniment

CAUSES a thrill of joy to vibrate through the heart of all those who are suffering from Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Headache, Pain in the Side, Back and Joints, &c

Those who are daily wasting away a life of painful suffering and torture will hail with delight the introduction of this great family medicine in their homes as the great harbinger of ease, and relief from their sufferings and pains, for this is the sure result when this wonderful medicine is used. Limbs and joints that have been stiffened and refused to perform their usual offices, have by the use of "The American Rheumatic Liniment" been restored to their former usefulness.

Secure a bottle at once and be relieved of your pain and suffering.

TESTIMONIALS:

Raleigh N. C, Jan 16, 1869.

Mr Congleton:—On the 14th inst., I came to town with considerable pain and swelling in my right knee I got a bottle of the "American Rheumatic Liniment" and applied it to my knee, which was greatly relieved and assuaged in ten hours. I then applied it again and by night was so far cured as to forget to apply the remedy; this pain had resisted the application of Liquid Opodeldoc for a week without any perceptible improvement, causing a limp in my walk at sometime and fears of inability to walk at all.

Respectfully,
THO BAILY,

Mr. Congleton:—Dear Sir: My little son was for four months suffering with pains in his legs and weakness in his knees so he scarcely could get about and walked with great difficulty. I was fearful that he would lose the use of his legs entirely which gave me a great deal of trouble and anxiety, hearing of the American Rheumatic Liniment, I purchased one bottle and commenced using it, and by the time I had used half of the bottle, my son was greatly relieved and could walk very well, and after using the whole bottle, he is now perfectly well, with many thanks to you and praises for the "American Rheumatic Liniment" I am yours, &c.,

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

A compound remedy, designed to be the most effectual Alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:—

Scrofula and Scrofulous Complaints, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases, Ulcers, Pimples, Blotches, Tumors, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Syphilis and Syphilitic Affections, Mercurial Disease, Dropsy, Neuralgia or Tic Douloureux, Debility, Dyspepsia and Indigestion, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from Impurity of the Blood.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.
